

Toronto Street News Book Promotion: 'Canada's Total Takeover In Progress'

Virginia: On Saturday I made a speech about Bob Rae (real name Levine) and his wife the alleged Mossad agent. He received $750,000 to get the Lib leadership last year from his brother at Power Corporation the Rothschild front. The Levines (Raes) grew up at the foot of the notorious Maurice Strong, family friend called "Uncle Mo". 'Uncle Mo' is alleged to use children for sex and is currently hiding out in China the last we heard among other escape routes.

Bob adopted grandma's Scottish name and appears as 'Joe Canadian'. I pointed this out further but he is definitely not a 'Joe Canadian'. He tried to sell the publicly owned Ontario Hydro (probably the best power grid in North America) to the Enron company and with Strong's help dismantled Ontario Hydro making it appear mismanaged and in need of 'corporate' help (theft). As I said to you before, he used Ontario Hydro's huge budget to carve out a salary for his buddy Mike Harris' campaign manager who eventually took over Ontario's premiership and attempted also to sell Ontario Hydro to aliens when it had functioned perfectly well without any help. Good old Maurice Strong had worked at Quebec Hydro and with Power Corporation which was also Rae's brother's position. The international New World Order corporations and even countries were salivating at the prospect of capturing Ontario Hydro away from its owners — the citizens of Ontario. They included the notorious Enron, also Quebec Hydro which was trying to separate from Canada at the time, also France itself and England. This boy Rae gets around!

Toronto Street News recently forced Rae to deny that he had a Maoist brother-in-law smuggling Chinese into Canada by telling an honest lawyerly lie saying it wasn't so. In fact, brother-in-law Gary had died in the meantime but I knew both of them at the same time. The Toronto Star said he was a good businessman at Perly Map company, the family firm, because he got the right to make up street maps for Peking. Of course, they never mentioned he got on their good side by smuggling Chinese nationals into Canada (a crime).

Rae's sister who they bragged was screwing Trudeau at the time moved back to Toronto to work for the NDP in nepotist style receiving a salary from the NDP riding of Broadview-Greenwood which couldn't afford such limo style help as they did everything as volunteers. I know because I charged them for my graphic design and typesetting work at the time which was never matched anywhere if I say so myself!

Recently I came across his handwritten thank-you note for same. I'll have to publish it soon to prove that back-stabbing punk what he deserves for letting down his party, his country, his trusting associates.

I really didn't need to be invited into the hallway to see the wonderful sister vigorously brushing her teeth!

As a family who was rumoured to have gone through New York's vaudeville he made the local NDPers suffer through his singing piano solos at church on First Avenue below Gerrard St.

Gary Perly tried to hire me at his lawyer's office to help in the Chinese smuggling but I was warned by the old-time Communist party guys I knew as to what I should expect if I went near this Maoist Where is Hardial Bains these days anyway?.

Professor Driscoll's book is where the story comes from about Bob Rae being father of Masonic sex-criminal Paul Bernardo. I've never put that in the paper because I never believed it even though everyone has been saying it for some years now. However, I do believe it's possible knowing of other horrors attributed to the family as told by Ben Fulford, 6-year bureau chief for Forbes Magazine in Tokyo. Ben became our friend and supporter lending us his ninja protection following threats directed toward him from 93-year old David Rockefeller. I visited the Fulford estate in Brockville. Ben related being victimized by Bob Rae's brother who "bulled him horribly", then committed suicide.

One of my homeless guys got a chance to give Bernardo a good bean on the head when the bricklayer was asked for a cigarette in prison. When he got close enough to Bernardo he grabbed him through the bars and slammed his forehead against the bars using his strong arms.

Today, we have trouble with our Honda advertiser of 5 years who has been threatened by the local zionists (Bob Rae & wife's gang?). after revealing some of these facts. We always knew they would eventually get around to harassment but we've always planned Toronto Street News to survive without any ad money supplied by multi-nationals. In our case, we actually subsidized them with large ads.

Funny thing, the world's largest nuclear plant supplying Honda with electricity was earth-quaked by Rockefeller last year. The story was reported by Fulford who showed a video of the HAARP-created plasma cloud over the plant at the time. They hit the plant with a second earthquake which he showed on his Tokyo TV program.

This year of course, Fulford repeated news of the HAARP earthquake machine — another unbelievable cloud sequence when the earthquake occurred this time in China causing mass death, endangering 60 dams and doing a reported trillion dollars in damages. (The Rockefellers don't care).

Fulford has certainly taken on a handful having challenged Rockefeller to show up at the old Brockville estate in a kind of High Noon showdown watched by a variety of security people in many countries and many people in general public who heard the challenge to the Rockefellers to stop killing and now starving people around the world in order to reduce the world's population. Fulford claims at various times to have hundreds of thousands of ninjas warriors ready to die in order to wipe out the 10,000 members of the elite Rothschilds and Rockefellers existant on earth in order to save billions who are slated for removal as useless eaters.

Last summer, Fulford related how an assassin/enforcer showed up the day after he interviewed the Japanese finance minister asking him why he had signed away Japan's banking to the Rockefellers.

The would-be assassin confirmed to Fulford that it was true — the Rockefellers felt they needed starvation and disease as weapons to reduce the world's population as wars were too inefficient. Sounds like Hitler?

The assassin-enforcer informed Fulford that it had been decided if he was so smart at exposing the final take-over of Japanese banking (two bankers were murdered shortly before) that he would have to either take a senior banking position within government or be rubbed out.

The assassin revealed to him his official Japanese Masonic badge.

The day following this threatening visit before he could decide on what he would have to do — a member of the secret Asian order of ninjas and/or member of the crime families came to him and told him they knew of the threats and he should not fret because they were onto the case and would protect him.

Around that time 92 year old David Rockefeller visited Japan at the request of the Japanese Emperor. Fulford released an interview he got with Rockefeller saying he could have had him tied up with a dildo in his anus which is what happened to another reporter who had gotten close to the Rockefeller story of banking murders and takeover.

That video was released on the internet also and Fulford became an even better known reporter selling over 100,000 copies of his book as well as hosting his own weekly TV program. He was also instrumental in releasing the story to North America of the Japanese parliamentary investigation of 911 and George Bush's apparent part in those particular murders.

Fulford and the ninjas/Yakuza crime gangs share a similar blood relationship accusation against the Rockefellers as the Rockefellers stand accused of murdering Canadian senator Fulford in 1905. Fulford was a super-rich Canadian at the time and tried to hire genius-inventor Tesla. The Rockefellers, like JP Morgan didn't want Tesla teaching people how to make their own power outside of their grasping clutches.

So, we watch here at Toronto Street News watch the goings on between the New World Order in the personage of the Rockefellers, Rothschilds and the would-be prime minister of Canada in the person of Bob Levine Rae versus Honda, the Japanese corporation struggling to survive.

Would we report this to the "authorities"? Well, who would we report to? We have evidence that CSIS (Canadian Security Intelligence Service) has been compromised by at least two foreign powers.

This is just a condensed tidbit from the soon-to-be-released book Canada's Total Takeover In Progress but don't expect to see it on bookshelves owned by Heather Riesman whose parliamentary-approved near-monopoly=ownership of Canada's bookstores, namely, Indigo and Chapters prevents truly Canadian and honest books to be shown on their shelves.

Pre-published orders: $50 a copy. Some copies have been distributed to associates.

Contacted by El. Osnat Kohali, the manager of Haaretz.com stated that the newspaper and its website have a clear policy of not allowing any advertisements that include "incitement against any side." In reaction to some of the statements on the Samson Blinded site quoted in this article, Kohali noted that the offensive statements were on the advertised website itself rather than in the advertisements that appeared on Haaretz. Kohali added, "We don't go through each and every website and make a complete review about what it says." However she undertook to review the Samson Blinded advertisements noting that "mistakes can be made."

But the Samson Blinded ads are not the only case of Haaretz apparently profiting from extremism; its website has often carried advertisements for an organization called "The Jerusalem Summit" which also advocates the removal of the remaining Palestinians from their homeland and holds that "the delegitimization of the Palestinian narrative becomes a vital prerequisite to any comprehensive resolution of the Palestinian issue."

This kind of militant Jewish extremism has been making steady inroads into Israel's political mainstream, as numerous parties openly advocate the "transfer" (expulsion) of Palestinians and Israeli leaders have done little to marginalize and discourage it. What is surprising is that the widely respected Haaretz, which publishes jointly in Israel with The International Herald Tribune, would profit from hate groups and their possibly criminal incitement.

Ironically, in 2006, the German newspaper publisher M. DuMont Schauberg bought a 25% stake in Haaretz, a move German Chancellor Angela Merkel praised as an instance of German reconciliation with Israel. In Germany, as in many other European countries, incitement to racial hatred is illegal.

Israeli Newspaper and Website Advocating Genocide & Hate

Haaretz.com Ad Leads To Genocide/Terrorism Site

"Our land is not Arab land": An advertisement on the front page of Haaretz.com leads to a website advocating genocide and terrorism. <http://electronicintifada.net/v2/article9579.shtml>

Haaretz.com, the website of the Israeli newspaper often cited as an example of Israel's liberal, critical media carries paid advertisements from a website openly advocating the total destruction of the Palestinian people, the murder of large numbers of Muslim civilians, the assassination of the family members of Arab rulers, and the use of chemical, biological and nuclear weapons against dozens of countries.

The website, Samson Blinded, claims that Google banned its advertisements from its adwords program. If that is true, it would be consistent with Google's policy that prohibits advertising promoting violence or advocating against any group based on race, ethnic or national origin or religion. Yet the Samson Blinded advertisements appear prominently on the main page and article pages of Haaretz's website. For example the ad appeared on the front page of Haaretz.com on 1 June, and also prominently on an article page headlined "Who didn't attend New York's pro-Israel march? Israelis" on the same date.

Samson Blinded, whose publishers keep their identities secret, calls on Israel to eliminate all Palestinians from the territory it controls and to annihilate their culture. The site demands that Israel "destroy the Palestinian settlements [sic] and exile them far away -- not to refugee camps in neighboring Arab countries, or the conflict would be perpetuated." It argues that "Forced cultural assimilation of Palestinians should accompany deportation," adding that "With demise of Palestinians, Arab Israeli conflict would lose its impetus [sic]."

The hate site advertised on Haaretz incites religious war, exploitation of children, and terrorism. It states for example that "Slavery is not an option in the modern world, but Israel adopting children from the poorest countries, indoctrinating them with anti-Islamism, and training them for low-rank military service in Israel Defense Forces may be feasible." It also proposes that "Israel could invite Western Christian radicals to police the Palestinian territories" as "they would be happy to get a training ground in Israel for their militia." (Canada's RCMP are now contracted to serve Israel)

The site adds that "To succeed, Israeli violence against Arabs should be immediately overwhelming. Israel should show itself a bloodthirsty monster to scare the Arabs into submission." Among the violence advocated by the site is the unprovoked wholesale murder of relatives of the rulers of Arab countries, civilians, and prisoners of war.

The site even calls for nuclear strikes against neighboring countries: "Israel should legislate that a nuclear attack against her from whatever source means immediate, simultaneous nuclear destruction by Israel Defense Forces of everything Muslim -- capitals, temples, population centers -- by the hundred or so nuclear weapons in Israel's possession. Islamic terrorists who plan to use nuclear weapon against Israel must understand that the Jewish state will be commemorated with a really big bang."

The website's call for the destruction of the Palestinians appears to violate the 1948 Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide. The convention defines as genocide acts including killing, expulsion and causing bodily and mental suffering "with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial or religious group."

The Convention, adopted in the wake of the Nazi holocaust, also defines as crimes "Direct and public incitement to commit genocide" and "Complicity in genocide." The treaty, ratified by over 130 countries including Israel and the US, calls for the prosecution and punishment of these acts whether the individuals committing them "are constitutionally responsible rulers, public officials or private individuals."
