Dear Springeagle:

I wonder if you can help. I have been with my wife for 8 years and married for two of those. Our sex life has never been amazing but recently my wife has been less interested in me. When we do get passionate, which is not very often, she will not kiss me or give me any kind of foreplay. Once she has orgasm she roles over and wants to go to sleep. She will not come near me. If I suggest she touches me she gets turned off and stops, any ideas on how I can solve this problem?

Thank You — Aidan

Hi Aidan: I have been in very similar situations (3 times). What was found in the end is that Love was not the reason we were together. We had believed it was as it hurt so much when we tried over and over to separate. The deep emotional pain {we felt every time we decided to end it} was what was keeping us together. Co-dependency was and thus we were not in the least bit passionate towards each other without trying and trying is not part of love.

Blessings — Springeagle

Dear Springeagle:

Pantheism suggests that God and the universe are identical. Can this be a NEW religion?

Thanks Hank

Hi Hank

It is both new and old as this truth is eternal. God/Goddess/Creator/Jehovah is all, everything and only man would have the stubbornness to deny that fact.

The old is the new and what is in between we have dreamed up due to our fear of the truth, love and God/Goddess/Creator/Jehovah.

If we all began to believe and work with God/Goddess/Creator/Jehovah as opposed to dissecting the entire situation as we do we would have paradise not be searching for it.

Blessings and Love Springeagle

Dear Springeagle

Having lost the faith I once depended on, I feel kind of lost. Is there anyone who 'knows' if there really is such a thing as God?

With Hop Findirection

Hi Findirection:

I have been where you are and found that we cannot even move a finger without what we perceive to be God, Creator, Goddess, Love.

When I came to the end of my doubt I found that the movie Star Wars gave a very clear incite that I Misunderstood due to mass mind mis-preconceptions and teachings.

Today God is in my eyes the energy force of love that holds all in place and feeds us eternally. This is why we are to learn to love unconditionally and thus be one in totality with the universe.

The Force is a better way of describing and holding onto a more realistic for of God/Goddess.

Within this lifetime alone I have had more proof thrown at me and I have no doubt that God/Goddess truly exists in whatever name or title we deem fit to believe. I believe we are all talking to the same force and thus God/Goddess/Creator/Jehovah.

Dear Springeagle:

What can I do about my wife's two obese daughters in their 40s who are jealous of their Mom and our marriage?

Hope you can shed some light. Jess

Hi Jess

It matters not if these ladies are obese or not. What matters is they have an emotional illness called Jealousy.

You can do nothing but talk to them. If that does not work you must protect your wife, you self and your marriage from this hate.

Jealousy is hate and can produce serious physical illness with time. The movie Amadaes shows this very clearly.

Insecurity is the base root of Jealousy.

May be you can try to help these ladies understand this and go for proper therapy regarding the problem. I can be healed but first they must see the problem.

I pray you reach peace on this. I know it's a hard one.

Dear Springeagle:

Since I am not Christian I have not felt much like celebrating Christmas. Do you know how I could find a way to get into the spirit of things. I feel so left out during this time of the year.

Thanks Simone

Dear Simone:

I see Christmas as the one time of the year that we all work to love each other for just one day. No one has to be any religion to do that and with this comes the very best of celebrations. This is my major Spirit Lifter Blessings and love Springeagle.

Dear Springeagle:

This is a long story so I will try to keep it short, a person who is very close to me was charged with molesting his daughters, his daughter by a first marriage made these charges, he did not see her until later in life and of course tried to make up for some of these things. such as not being there and because of his guilt giving her money all the time. She had been on drugs and in and out of mental hospitals he started to see another girl who was much younger than himself, which of course she did not like from the word go. They went on to have children and it started to happen that children services stated to be called out, over things that was suppose to have been done to the girls. Around 13 times in 4 years. They never found anything because there was nothing to be found. This happened in Ohio they moved to North Carolina to get away from this because they did not know who was doing this. They were down here around 3 weeks and the children services down here came out When his daughter could not get her way up there she started down here and she made more serious charges that her father had molested her when she was a child along with her usual charges. There is one other thing that she used in his second marriage he had step children who were getting up to dating age and he was pretty trick to get him out of the way they made charges that he touched them and he was convicted of this by a jury but the judge only gave him 6 months because he didn't believe the girls. When children services came out he told them about this but he was in a letter bit of a fit but he held it in. He is from West Virginia and quite outspoken and not to mention tired of this. They told his wife she and the girls had to leave right then . I know this getting long so I may leave some out. They have the children in foster care and lied about certain things to get it done, at this point and time it has boiled down to this she has to make a choice between her children and her husband. He ruffled to many fathers here and now they are going to make something stick, their Aunt. Say he is being railroaded and it happens all the time and their is nothing they can do. They will not go on T.V. and tell this because the live here. He is in a very corrupt jail and we are afraid to do too much because he might not come out. Of course there is more to this. What do we do, in giving your answer try to remember every thing is true we are telling you. Shirley

Thanks Ronald

Hi Ronald:

I see clearly what is happening here. There is no question in my mind that someone, (may be not your friend's husband)but someone has messed with the older girls in a sexual way. They would not be lashing out in this manner if nothing had ever happened at all. I believe they are taking this out on their stepfather as many young girls that have been abused in a sexual way do. I deal with this on a daily basis and it is very hard for us to sort all of this out. It is hell on earth.

One girl I was working with accused 8 guys of trying to molest her including her father. I personally know most of these guys and know that this is untrue.

This girl has not yet been able to see behind the blocks she has around her own abuses. Abuses that had nothing at all to do with the guys she has accused at all. All of these allegations were made when this girl in question did not get her way or was being confronted with something she was incorrectly doing or not doing. She has literally lavished our lives in a very painfully hell and is laughing about it.

I have been abused sexually and to me this is truly hideous but the only way to stop these girls or boys in the opposite causes, is to get them to open the blocks they have in their minds to see clearly who did abuse them. I will pray for all of you and wish all the answers found.

Blessings and Love Springeagle

Question: Do you know how I know cannabis brings you closer to God?

Response: No. Answer: Because cannabis brings you closer to love

Hello brothers & sisters,

I am writing this note to express how I feel about the cannabis hemp plant. As a minister of the church of the universe I consider the cannabis plant to be the tree of life. It helps me communicate with the deepest aspect of I, creating a clarity that allows I to know the path to take.

"In life all the answers will come to you, all you have to do is listen." - Jay Being Cannabis hemp is the most beneficial plant known to mankind! And it has been under attack by Totalitarian governments for most of the 20th century. This is a plant that is sacred and has been used for centuries as a medicine. It has also been used by dozens of religions as a sacrament in some form of another.

List of Religions that have or have had cannabis involved in one way or another as a sacrament:

- ancient Egyptian
- Shintoism
- Early Christians

- Judaism (including Kabbalah),
- Muslims of the Sufi order
- Buddhism
- Ancient Pagan
- Hindu
- Taoism
- Rastafari
- the Ethiopian Zion Coptic Church
- THC Ministry
- Church OT Universe

People are unaware of the benefits of the cannabis plant and it is no surprise. The Government has used propaganda to discredit this sacred ancient plant. Fear has also been used to keep us away from the cannabis plant as they use unjust laws and pure bully tactics. The government and police make sure they let you know that it is not worth it, all the trouble it brings into your life.

Luckily I don't perceive that way and understand that it is my GOD given right to use this plant.

"You assume I am asking someone permission to live my life. I got that permission from God along time ago. And no one can take that away" - Rev. Walter Tucker Founder and Abbot of the Church OT Universe

According to me If you know your rights and know what the cannabis hemp plant is truly about you would not let police officers or anybody make you feel that you have done something wrong. Whenever I am pulled over by an officer of the law I always let him know that cannabis is my sacrament and at least try to educate him a little on the plant, telling him it is actually beneficial not just for myself but society as a whole if we just allowed it.

I talk to officers like brothers & sisters and look them in the eye speaking from my heart. It is hard to ignore love when it is directed at you. They realize that I am right or at least feel that I am, they may feel that way too. Mostly after they are aware that I know the truth at least according to my reality tunnel they seem to back off not interesting in pursuing the "charges" that they could technically give. Deep down I know they know nothing is wrong with smoking or having cannabis on you, but they have been brainwashed and are just doing there job.

Power, control, & fear must leave the police force or else with will never have peace. We need compassionate officers! Is there a class on that in police foundations? The whole 6 months they are there... I didn't think so.

"It is all on how you approach experiences in life, approach with love and you will be fine"

-Jay Being
The cannabis plant heals through the energy of love, when used properly it is a teacher and can elevate your awareness. Taking you to an experience of feeling the divide within. As a Being and Minister of the Church OT Universe I feel it is my role to share the message of love, through the tree of life that has allowed me to experience the love that lays in each and everyone of us.

It is plain to see that Cannabis connects us all and helps us communicate not only with our self but our brothers and sisters. The tree of life allows us to know the path that we must walk, the path that all the prophets & mystics have talked about and walked themselves. I feel I am walking a path that I have already been down, It is a pleasure to do it again :)

"The tree of life is for the healing of the nations" Rev. 22
